GIBBONS-DILLON BOUT WINNER MAY MIX UP SOON WITH LES DARCY

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 10.—After Mike Gibbons and Jack Dillon get through pummeling each other tonight and after the newspapers have decided that one of them has triumphed over the other, it is just possible that some bright young man will come along and offer one of the pair a chance to go to Australia and meet the Australian crack, Les Darcy.

In the bout tonight a recognized world's light heavyweight champion and a man who has as much right to claim the middleweight championship as any one will be getting together. Jack Dillon has successfully knocked all the aspirations out of most challengers of his ability, and Gibbons has spent many years doing precisely the same thing.

Gibbons is a legitimate middleweight, something that Dillon is not and hasn't been for a number of years. Hence, the bout can be in no way twisted into a scrap for a middleweight title. However, Darcy is declaring himself a middleweight, but is leaning on the light heavies as fast as they come. He announces with much show of bravado that he wants a crack at Dillon, so it makes little difference who walks away with the long end of the newspaper score tonight.

Dillon trained down to 163 pounds in order to get the elusive Gibbons into a ring, and Gibbons is expected to be somewhere around 158.

YOUNG CO-EDS FLOCK TO LANGUAGE CLASSES AS GRANDEES ENROLL

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 10.—Young, handsome, vivacious, delightfully unmarried and owners of one cute little mustache each, Senors Enriquez Jimenez and Martine Guzman were today putting romance in the Romance language department of the University of Minnesota. They came all the way from Chihuahua, Mexico to join the Gopher faculty. Young co-eds promptly flocked to their classes.

MRS. BURNETT SUE

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Frances Hodgson Burnett Townsend, famous as the authoress of "Little Lord Fauntleroy," will today bring suit to an examination before trial in the $50,000 damage action for defamation of character brought by Mrs. Annie P. Fahnestock of Washington, wife of a music critic. Mrs. Townsend, it is alleged, wrote a letter in February, 1915, to Mrs. Fahnestock's sister, in which she criticized the plaintiff, who married a nephew of Mrs. Townsend.

HUGHES TAKES LATEST RETURNS WITH CALM IN HIS N. Y. HOTEL

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Hughes took the latest returns today with complete outward calmness despite the terrific strain of Tuesday. He slept late. At 9:30 a. m. he had not ordered breakfast sent to his private dining room in the Hotel Astor. When he appeared later he was smiling and exchanged pleasantries in the old way with his personal and political friends.

MME. DE SAINT POINT BRINGS GEOMETRICAL DANCE TO NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Abas, Salome, likewise the sensuous Egyptian and the tantalizing, wiggling hula hula maid, each of whom it seems, took a lesson from Miss Hootchie-Kootchie—America is to have a new stage dance.

Methorior or geometrical dancing is its label and Mme. Valentine de Saint Point is its exponent. She is now en route to New York on the Monsenat from Barcelona, Spain. The dancing which she will introduce has a "cerebral quality," which is explained thusly.

While music, painting and sculpture have changed in form and method, becoming more "cerebral" instead of merely emotional, dancing has remained an art which appeals through the eye, to the sense alone. In the new geometrical dancing all the elements which fill the house when Mary Garden dances Salome are retained and artistry are introduced giving the movements meanings.

The dances are staged with Mme. de Saint Point's own poems set to music by Debussy, Ravel and other composers. In some the garb is very light, in one, however, a coat of mail, with only slits for the eyes is worn.

WILSON LEAD IN VIEWS ON WHAT CAUSED WILSON VICTORY TOLD BY ELECTORS

Plurality For Executive Is Given At 3893 From 5838 Precincts

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—Returns from all but twenty precincts in California tabulated this afternoon give Wilson a lead of 4244. The total vote on 5846 precincts was: Hughes, 461,181, and Wilson, 465,325.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—With only 23 precincts in California to be heard from, Wilson was leading Hughes by 3923 votes.

JOHNSON IS NEARLY 300,000 AHEAD OF HUGHES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—Hiram W. Johnson in his candidacy for senator ran nearly 300,000 ahead of Hughes, incomplete unofficial returns from all sections of California today showed.

WETS WIN IN STATE ON LATEST RETURNS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—California apparently will remain wet. Majorities against prohibition today indicated that with few exceptions prohibition generally was losing. Absolute prohibition is behind 110,000 and partial prohibition approximately 40,000.

DEMOCRATS GAIN ONE CAL. CONGRESSMAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—The Democrats gained one congressman in California by the election of C. F. Lee from the First district. Lee succeeds W. M. Kent, independent, who was not a candidate for re-election.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—Complete returns from 5838 California precincts of 5866 gave Wilson 466,752, and Hughes 462,859, making a lead for Wilson of 3893. A reduction in the total vote for Wilson was caused by a correction made by County Clerk Kay of Humboldt county which showed that Wilson had previously erroneously been credited with 1000 votes. Sending returns to the United Press from 74 precincts, Kay gave these figures: Hughes, 5670, and Wilson 5014.

It had been declared this morning that the Wilson total should have been 4014.

HIGH COST KEEPS UP EVEN TO GRAVEYARD

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 21 (by mail).—The leasing of graves being, to a considerable extent, the custom in Buenos Aires, the municipal intendente has published a notice warning the relatives of tenants in the local cemeteries that rents are due and that those who fail to secure renewals within thirty days will be evicted. The intendente adds that victims of the evictions will be deposited in the canal house, or less elegantly expressed, the general boneyard.

DRIVING ON TRACKS, AUTO STICKS IN FROG

MONROVIA, Nov. 10.—Leo Zabala, an Italian who says his home is in Santa Ana, was arrested for trying to make an automobile speedway out of the Santa Fe railway a mile south of the city. Zabala had driven his car along the ties until the front wheels were caught in a frog, when the station employes, seeing him rushed out and dragged the machine off the track just as the California Limited roared by.

The Italian had evidently been trying to help make California dry, for he didn't recover his senses until he was awakened yesterday morning in the city jail. He will be heard later in the week.

SINGLE TAX DEFEAT SURE

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 10.—It will be at least five days before definite figures can be given out on the vote on amendment No. 5, known as the single tax measure.

This information was conveyed to Philip D. Wilson, secretary of the People's Anti-Single Tax League, in a telegram received last evening from Frank C. Jordan, secretary of state.

The all-absorbing interest in the presidential race and the "wet" and "dry" question in California has prevented anything like a complete tabulation on amendment No. 5, but, from the incomplete returns received at the People's Anti-Single Tax League headquarters in this city, it is estimated that the amendment has been defeated by at least 100,000 in the state.

Views On What Caused Wilson Victory Told By Electors

Expressions Regarding Democratic Success Obtained From Voters

The following interviews from local voters regarding their views as to the causes which brought President Wilson's re-election were obtained today:

W. B. WILLIAMS, county clerk, Republican: The Adamson law, "he kept us out of war" slogan, and prosperity in the East did it.

W. C. JEROME, county auditor, Republican—"It was the agricultural states that elected Wilson, and so I think the high prices that farmers are receiving for their products had a good deal to do with it."

WALTER EDEN, deputy district attorney, chairman of the Republican County Central Committee.—The great body of voters who vote independent of parties had much to do with it. Many of them liked Wilson regardless of what party he represented.

W. H. THOMAS, superior judge, Republican.—Many factors entered into it. Among them is the firm stand that Wilson took when the great interests were bent on destroying Brandeis.

E. E. KEECH, attorney, Republican: The pacifists—"He kept us out of war"—and the labor vote were the determining factors in Wilson's success.

GEORGE A. EDGAR, groceryman and staunch Democrat: Legislation for the common people at large won the election for Wilson.

S. M. DAVIS, attorney, Republican: The women elected Wilson. In every normally Republican state where the women vote except Oregon, Wilson was the victor over Hughes. "He kept us out of war" won the support of the women voters. The labor vote helped Wilson.

W. L. GRUBB, Republican: Wilson bought the election by catering to the union miners and railroad vote. He started his campaign for votes two years ago when he sent troops into Colorado and then withdrew them.

A. R. HERVEY, cashier California National Bank, Republican: The Adamson law and peace at any price got the whole story.

W. L. DUGGAN, Democratic candidate for senator: Hughes was not a satisfactory candidate to the western Republicans, because of his knocking the western people are cooesters and they disapproved of his policy of knocking.

H. C. HEAD, attorney, Democrat: While I haven't had time to analyze the returns, in my opinion it was the independent and progressive vote that re-elected Wilson. He had the support of miners because of his fair adjustment of matters concerning them. I am disappointed at the vote in Orange county.

C. D. OVERSHINER, postmaster: It shows that the general masses of the American people are satisfied with the administration of President Wilson. The campaign right. The Republicans fully endorsed this sentiment and now the Democrats heartily approve it; so that we are all of one opinion, fully agreed. This result was as unexpected as it is gratifying. We do well to accept the judgment of the people, for no party monopolizes the political ability of the nation. The result of the election shows that the American people can be depended upon to decide the issues of the campaign right.

J. A. TURNER, President Farmers & Merchants' Bank, Democrat.—In my opinion President Wilson was re-elected from the fact that his heart was with the people, that he is one of them and closer to the masses, the common people, the medium class, than any man in public life since Lincoln. His actions have shown that his heart is with this class in preference to the Wall Streets of New York, Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia and other money centers and the millionaires of the land, and from the fact that he has given the country the Federal Reserve system of banks, which will practically do away with panics; the Farmers' and banks, which will enable the farmers to borrow at a low rate of interest on long time; the non-partisan tariff commission; the income tax law, all directly for the best interests of the people; and last, but not least, he has steered us clear of war, notwithstanding the howls of the multi-millionaires who would send our boys into Mexico to suffer and die that they might reap the profit from their immense holdings of property in our unfortunate sister republic.

120 POLES PERISH IN RIVER VISTULA AS BARGE GOES UNDER

LONDON, Nov. 10.—One hundred and twenty persons have been drowned through the sinking of a barge on the Vistula, according to a Central News dispatch from Amsterdam. The disaster occurred at Kamierz, near Lublin, in Poland.

Democrats Winners Sans Aid of States Held indispensable

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Woodrow Wilson has apparently been elected without the votes of the heretofore supposedly indispensable states of New York, Indiana and Illinois. He has seemingly won without aid from the Democratic leaders who dominate these states: Charles F. Murphy of Tammany Hall, Thomas Taggart of Indiana, and Roger Sullivan of New York.

Illinois politicians will all wait the administration's treatment of New York City, Illinois and Indiana state ment which wrongly credited the President with having kept us out of war. President Wilson can bless his lucky star that a stupendous war occurred during his administration. If some of the effort expended on the amendments and minor offices had been put on the head of the ticket, Hughes would have carried California.

GEORGE H. DOBSON, Republican: President Wilson won because of the support given him by those people who asked his peace policy.

BEN E. TARVER, attorney, secretary Democratic County Central Committee: I do not think that President Wilson's victory was due so much to the support of the labor vote as it was to the vote of those people in the West and Middle West who were in accord with him on his Mexican policies. Those people do not want intervention and their vote carried tremendous weight in the election.

C. D. BALL, Republican State Central Committeeman: The Adamson bill swung the labor vote to President Wilson. This is indicated to my mind by the results shown in San Diego and San Bernardino, where the labor vote is strong. I know that in our section of Southern California the Progressives fought valiantly for Hughes.

M. R. HENINGER, Republican: There is nothing in the returns from the East to the Rocky mountains that would indicate that the people were dissatisfied with the Republican policies. From the North Pacific states the drift to President Wilson was in my opinion because he kept us out of war and as for California there was too much Johnson.

W. L. DUGGAN: Among the bulletins flashed upon the screen by the Register Tuesday evening was a statement from Chairman Wilcox, which contained these words, quoting from memory: "The result of the election shows that the American people can be depended upon to decide the issues of the campaign right."

J. A. TURNER, President Farmers & Merchants' Bank, Democrat.—In my opinion President Wilson was re-elected from the fact that his heart was with the people, that he is one of them and closer to the masses, the common people, the medium class, than any man in public life since Lincoln. His actions have shown that his heart is with this class in preference to the Wall Streets of New York, Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia and other money centers and the millionaires of the land, and from the fact that he has given the country the Federal Reserve system of banks, which will practically do away with panics; the Farmers' and banks, which will enable the farmers to borrow at a low rate of interest on long time; the non-partisan tariff commission; the income tax law, all directly for the best interests of the people; and last, but not least, he has steered us clear of war, notwithstanding the howls of the multi-millionaires who would send our boys into Mexico to suffer and die that they might reap the profit from their immense holdings of property in our unfortunate sister republic.

50 POLES PERISH IN RIVER VISTULA AS BARGE GOES UNDER

LONDON, Nov. 10.—One hundred and twenty persons have been drowned through the sinking of a barge on the Vistula, according to a Central News dispatch from Amsterdam. The disaster occurred at Kamierz, near Lublin, in Poland.

Democratic organizations. The consensus of opinion is that there are three lean years ahead so far as federal patronage and recognition by the administration are concerned.

Blow Near For Tammany
It is generally believed that on Tammany Hall will fall the hardest blow, since from the dawn of election day the President's friends had a hunch that the Murphyites would knife Wilson. The tremendous city majority which Tammany had promised Wilson failed dismally to materialize.

OFFICIAL COUNT MAY RESULT IN CHANGE OF WORD OF WILCOX

G. O. P. National Chairman Refuses to Give Up Ship; Asks Fair Play

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Chairman Wilcox of the Republican National Committee at 12:26 p. m. today issued the following statement:

"Results still depend on the vote in a few close states. We must bear in mind that the returns thus far announced are in most states unofficial and may be changed by the official count required by law in those states."

"Twice during the unofficial computation yesterday in California mistakes on addition were announced from that state, substantially changing the figures previously given. It is common experience that the result of the official count almost always varies from the returns first announced."

"Where the vote is as close as that reported from several states it may well be that material changes will result from the official count."

"We owe it to the country to take all necessary steps to see that an exact and honest count of these votes is made."

"When the current seemed running against Wilson Wednesday the Democratic managers announced their intention to demand a recount in every close state. All we desire is to make sure that the vote is counted as cast."

G. O. P. CHIEFS CONCEDE WILSON VICTORY

HUGHES' DEFEAT SURE EVEN IF STATES HELD AS DOUBTFUL TAKE TURN

Chairman Willcox Says 'Good Bye;' Democratic Headquarters Dismantled

COUNT NOT CLOSE, IS REPUBLICANS' VIEW

Presidential Battle Regarded As Most Bewildering and Complex In History

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Taking the unofficial count at its face value, there was no doubt this afternoon that President Wilson and Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall had been re-elected. The Republican National Committee does not view the unofficial count as the closest but in many respects the most bewildering, complex election in history.

At Democratic headquarters Chairman McCormick said "Goodbye." He said he was prepared to live the simple life again at Harrisburg. Headquarters was being dismantled this afternoon. McCormick said that he classified as doubtful all those states from which complete returns had not yet been made. Even with these out, President Wilson's total vote is far above the 266 electoral votes needed to be elected.

The California count, still incomplete, showed President Wilson leading by 4244 votes.

CHICAGO TRIBUNE GIVES WILSON 269 VOTES

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—The Tribune, Hughes Republican, at 9 a. m. today issued an extra declaring President Wilson to have been elected with 269 electoral votes.

BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 10.—At 1 p. m. today 1920 precincts of 1979 in North Dakota the vote stood: Wilson, 54,031, and Hughes, 52,843, making Wilson's lead 1188.

CONGRESS POWER BALANCE RESTS WITH INDEPENDENTS

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The balance of power in the next Congress will actually rest with five representatives with independent affiliations as far as the Democrats and Republicans are concerned.

In the fact of returns available at noon the Republicans gained so much Tuesday on the Democratic majority in Congress to a point to where even the speakership might be affected.

Present returns indicate that the Republicans will have two more representatives than the Democrats. Success or failure of legislation therefore will rest on the votes of the Socialist, Prohibition and Progressive representatives.

The following is the next House lineup, according to unofficial United Press Association figures:

Republicans, 216; Democrats, 214; Independents, 5.

ASBURY PARK SLEEPS LATE AS DEMOCRATS END BIG CELEBRATION

ASBURY PARK, Nov. 10.—Asbury Park slept late today. The bottom and sides of the election excitement had been kicked out but it took the election celebrators until an early hour to complete the wreck. By midnight the summer White House stopped treating to see the President and Secretary Tumulty in the big White House automobile. An impromptu parade of victory was started. The victory cries of the Democrats lasted until the early hours.

DIVE OF BLAZING ZEPPELIN SEEN BY WRITER OF UNITED PRESS

Writer Says Splendor of Big Craft's Death Plunge Thing of Appeal

BY WILBUR S. FORREST
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
LONDON, Oct. 19 (by mail).—A close range view of a great flaming super-Zeppelin toppling out of a black, midnight sky is probably a lifetime privilege.

A certain knowledge that nearly a score of human beings are in their death throes does not occur to the observer of a Zeppelin's fiery demise. The splendor of the occasion only appeals.

England's latest air victim, which fell at Potters Bar, performed its final almost at the backdoor of the United Press correspondent's home. Watching the sky raider, held fast by earth searchlight tentacles, wriggling and twisting to escape the rays, a small brilliant disk of light suddenly illuminated its nose. Like an enormous thousand candle power flare it glared there momentarily and then, as if set in motion by some unseen force, dilated with startling rapidity. White flames raced down the silvery back of the raider, probably two city blocks in length. The next stage of the wonderful display came faster than words can be written.

No Fourth of July fireworks extravaganza has ever equalled the glaring curtain of flame which flowed like a waterfall from top to bottom of the raider, enveloping her length and breadth. There, suspended on an even keel, the great airship hovered momentarily against the black sky, glowing and silhouetting every joint and criss-cross of its metal skeleton.

Ten seconds, perhaps, it remained like this. Then the great luminous tail began to curl like a burning worm. Fiery meteors shot earthward. The great monster's back became weak. Its belly sagged until the whole giant form described a weak imitation of the letter S.

Then a real disintegration began. The whole twisted, fiery form began to fall. Monster pieces roared away from the main body and hurtled themselves earthward. The carcass was falling hundreds of feet a second, carried by the wind to the north. It upended, wreathed back to the horizontal again and parted in the middle.

Falling Mass of Flame
It was now only a falling mass of flame devoid of form. The incandescent flare which had illuminated half of North London and the fields and villages of Middlesex as bright as day subsided. As the flaming mass struck the ground a lower flare gave out a final light and all was dark again.

Cheers from a hundred thousand throats were carried on the breeze. Everyone knew that another Zeppelin had been added to England's bag. In the morning while soldiers were dragging charred and blackened bodies from under the smoldering ruins at Potters Bar, the world was told that this time it was a super-Zeppelin.

ALLIED PLAN TO DIVIDE ASIA MINOR BARED

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 10.—Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg, in his speech before the Reichstag committee yesterday, expressed the conviction that Germany was certain of final victory. The chancellor is quoted in reports published here as having said:

"England and France in 1915 guaranteed to Russia territorial rule over Constantinople, the Bosphorus and the western shore of the Dardanelles with its hinterland, while Asia Minor was to be divided among the members of the entente.

"The annexation intention of our enemies also include Alsace-Lorraine, which the League of Peace is to guarantee them. Such a policy of course cannot form a basis for an effective peace union.

"Germany is ready at all times to join a union of the peoples and even to place herself at the head of such a union to restrain a disturber of the peace. Not in the shadow of Prussian militarism did the word live before the war, but in the shadow of a policy of isolation which was to keep Germany down.

"Against this policy, whether it appears diplomatically as an encirclement, militarily as a war of destruction or economically as world boycott, we from the beginning, were on the defensive.

"The German people wage this war as a defensive war for the safety of its national existence, for its free development."

JUVENILES ESCAPED; GO TO REFORM SCHOOL

Sheiley Morris and Leonard Love, the two boys who escaped from the detention home a week ago, were caught at Ontario Wednesday and returned here yesterday. The former was taken to home last night and the latter to Whittier today.

When the boys left here they did so with the intention of making their way east. Officers at Ontario stopped them in their flight.

They were hungry many times and were rather glad when the Ontario officers picked them up.

The boys first got in trouble when they stole an automobile from Frank Clapp at night and wrecked it on North Main street.

JAPANESE INVADING NEW ZEALAND TRADE

WASHINGTON—Japan may get the extensive trade of New Zealand and some of that of Australia, following the war, according to official confidential dispatches received in Washington.

Because of the blacklist of German firms in New Zealand and Australia, it was said, those countries will have to look elsewhere for their imports. Japan is prepared to take care of this trade and also that of larger Chinese cities, the dispatches declared.

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR CONVEYS WRONG IDEA

A typographical error appeared in the Register "Pink" yesterday which changed the entire meaning of the article in question, and, unfortunately, in the wrong direction.

The article, which was signed by Chas. L. Davis, Chandler and Oakland distributor, stated that Mr. Davis "had numerous complaints at the showing of the Chandler car at the recent Los Angeles automobile show."

The word "complaints" is erroneous and should have read "compliments." Anyone who saw the Chandler display will readily agree that there was nothing about it that would justify the slightest complaint, while there was much that was deserving of the compliments bestowed upon it.

TEAM RUNS, DRIVER IS THROWN OUT, BRUISED

ORANGE, Nov. 10.—This morning a team driven by E. F. Wickersheim, orange grower of McPherson, ran away. The team came from the west and tried to go around the plaza. At Dittmer's drug store, a horse fell, and the runaway came to a sudden halt on the sidewalk. Wickersheim was thrown to the pavement. He escaped with severe bruises.

MAN ARRESTED ON TRAIN APPEARS TO BE ARMY DESERTER

FULLERTON, Nov. 10.—Enlistment papers in the United States Army that he carried in his pocket betrayed H. J. Cousins and he is being held at the county jail while officers are investigating his record, on the supposition that he is a deserter.

Cousins was taken from a Santa Fe train Wednesday night and locked up in the city jail. Later he was searched by Marshal French and the enlistment papers were discovered.

Cousins does not deny that he was in the army but declares that at the expiration of his time he was given his discharge papers, but neglected to carry them with him.

Cousins told the police he enlisted in the San Francisco contingent of the National Guard. After serving three months at the mobilization camp at Sacramento, the police say he told them he was discharged.

He was sent to the county jail for ten days on a charge of evading his fare and in the meantime his fingerprints will be sent to army officials.

JAP WHO MARRIED A PICTURE BRIDE NOW LEGALLY FREE OF HER

Shoda Nagamatsu, Jap rancher, may wed another picture bride, if he is willing to again take the risk. In 1906 he picked out a picture that suited his fancy, and on June 28, 1906, there arrived at Seattle a winsome Nipponese. Shoda met her at the docks, and within a few hours the two were married. They came to Orange county. In less than three years the wife departed, and Shoda was left alone, whether lonesome or not does not appear. A year and a half ago he decided that he would get an American divorce, and soon afterward Attorney M. A. Cain filed a complaint accusing Yoshi Nagamatsu with desertion. An interlocutory decree was secured. Today the final decree was signed, and Shoda is legally free to send to Japan for another bride.

FRAUD CHARGES TO BE DECIDED BY STATES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Government officials here were deeply interested and not a little concerned over announcements from Democratic and Republican campaign leaders that contests might be expected, with a possibility of legal proceedings, over the votes for presidential electors in several of the close states.

Examination of the decisions of the supreme court and of the revised statutes disclosed that electors are plainly regarded as state officers. The highest court has held in two leading cases that questions of their proper or improper choice are for state election of officers or state courts to determine, and that the Federal government is not lawfully concerned even if fraud is shown.

States to Decide

The revised statutes provide that the electors shall meet in each state and "give their votes" on the second Monday in January following election at places to be designated by the state legislatures. In the ordinary course of proceedings where the right of the electors to sit is uncontested their votes would be counted in the House of Representatives here on the second Wednesday in February and this would be the legal end of the election.

The statutes further provide that where a state shall have laws made prior to the election determining methods by which controversies or contests over electors shall be settled, whether by judicial proceedings or otherwise, these laws "shall be binding and shall govern in counting the electoral vote." Officials here were under the impression that it would be found that all the states that may be involved in contests have laws of this character.

Count in February

Aside from the direction that the electoral votes of all the states be counted on the second Wednesday in February, there seems to be nothing to indicate just how much latitude a state might have in determining contests so as to have its vote counted at the fixed time.

The statutes provide that the votes of the states be forwarded to Washington forthwith after the electors meet on the second Monday in January, and also that whenever the certificate of any state as to its electors has not been received in Washington on the fourth Monday in January a special messenger shall be sent to the Federal district judge in that state.

NEW PANAMA PORT ON ATLANTIC IS OPENED

WASHINGTON.—The republic of Panama has opened a new port on the Atlantic coast, about 80 miles from Colon, and begun construction of a government building there. The port is named Mandinga and is located on Mandinga bay, in the gulf of San Blas. It has an excellent harbor with deep water and is only a short distance from important manganese ore mines owned by an American syndicate. Near by is the site of a town to be named Nicuesa to be developed under a government concession granted to an American who has long resided in Colon.

WILD DEER DECLINES TO JOIN CAPTIVE HERD

ST. LOUIS.—Mrs. Oscar Combring when walking along a road near her farm north of Jerseyville one day recently, came upon a large deer. Thinking it was from the herd on Congress man H. T. Rainey's farm in Green county, she attempted to drive it back into the Rainey farm. The deer leaped fences and disappeared into the woods.

Investigation revealed the deer had not escaped from the congressman's farm, and that it probably was a wild one from the Greene county timber. An Illinois law prohibits the killing of deer before 1925.

CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS

Farmer's Desire to Pick Pears Leads to a Series of Unhappy Events

ALTOONA, Pa.—A chapter of correlated accidents is told by Henry Weaver, a Bald Eagle valley farmer, in Tyronne. Weaver says he decided to pick some pears from a large tree. The limb broke and in his descent he passed through the roof of a hog pen. He fell on the back of a fat porker, which was so badly injured that it died.

In the barnyard adjoining the pig pen was a colt. It was so frightened by the noise that it jumped over a fence and ran into a clothes line, one end of which was fastened to a post. The post was hurled through the kitchen window of the farmhouse, narrowly missing the baby sitting in the high chair.

The colt leaped over another fence and collided with a barbed wire fence, lacerating its legs and breast. When the veterinarian came the next day to sew up the cuts he ran over Weaver's dog, which had to be shot.

DOGS BURY TEETH IN LEG, BUT—IT'S WOODEN

NEW YORK.—William Sands, dog-catcher in Ridgefield Park, N. J., was taking an unlicensed cur to the pound when two other dogs attacked him. With his crutch he kept driving them to his left side. They dug their teeth in his left leg several times, but he showed no pain. Then the dogs retreated and Billy went to the pound on his good right leg and his wooden left one.

And the 'Wet' Goods Came From Santa Ana

(From the Santa Paula Chronicle)
Down at Fullerton, which is supposed to be a "dry" town, the papers report a social event which was extremely wet in name. This was the marriage of Miss Pool to Mr. Pond. At the ceremony one of the guests was a Mr. Waters. Gifts were showered upon the happy pair and congratulations poured in.
We trust that happiness may reign over their union.

With Malice Toward None

By Henry James

Free Verse

Much joy may be had by reading what is known as free verse, but which for the most part is not verse at all.

If persons engage their time in writing this form of words, anyhow, they are being kept out of mischief. They may even cherish the belief that they are indulging in literary effort; and they may not be wrong, at that. Most of the would be wrong, though.

Poetry has been supposed to be constructed with some regard for metrical harmony and not to consist alone of a thought. The thought is the essence of the poem written by a poet, yet rhythmical beauty is as essential. In free verse there is likely to be no rhythmical beauty. Beauty is one of the elements from which it is free; hence the name.

May a quotation be permitted from one who loves free verse and makes it in large quantities? She has a reputation for actual verse that will not be shaken by an example of her other sort. Here it is:

'Me heart is full of crashing planes
of hate,
Poisonous angles twist and irritate, in my head squares bang (bang?) and jangle

'Jubes of loathing block and wrangle.'
Now there it is and not a soul has any right to find fault with it.

If it seems to bear to letters the relationship that A Lady Descending the Stairs bears to art, no matter.

And getting right down to brass tacks, there is no doubt that a poisonous angle, if it got to twisting in one's head, would irritate.

It never has been my fortune even to meet a poisonous angle.

Could the lady, by any chance, have been thinking of the angleworm? To be sure this is not poisonous, but it wists, something dreadful to behold.

This charming person plies her trade by day because afraid to go home in the dark.

How delightfully feminine!

Chesterfieldian

In admitting in court that her husband had a habit of beating her, a woman asserted that this function also was performed in a gentlemanly way.

But was it ladylike for her to betray her conjugal Chesterfield even to this extent?

No Better Nor Wiser

A glance at conditions in Europe shows that the human race is getting no better.

The reading of the letters that men write to women, and which form the basis of those cunning little breach-of-promise suits, shows that men aren't getting any wiser, either.

Loafing

Belgians are accused of being idle. The gentlemen who have taken over Belgian property and affairs bring the accusation.

Perhaps it is true that an industrious Belgian would not toll for an in-

IF TOO FAT GET MORE FRESH AIR

BE MODERATE IN YOUR DIET AND REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT. TAKE OIL OF KOREIN

—Lack of fresh air it is said weakens the oxygen carrying power of the blood, the liver becomes sluggish, fat accumulates and the action of many of the vital organs are hindered thereby. The heart action becomes weak, work is an effort and the beauty of the figure is destroyed.

Fat put on by indoor life is unhealthy and if nature is not assisted in throwing it off a serious case of obesity may result.

When you feel that you are getting too stout, take the matter in hand at once. Don't wait until your figure has become a joke and your health ruined through carrying around a burden of unsightly and unhealthy fat.

Spend as much time as you possibly can in the open air; breathe deeply, and get from Rowley Drug Co. or any druggist a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself every few days and keep up the treatment until you are down to normal. Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, helps the digestion and even a few days treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight. Advertisement.

Good Riddance

American deserters from the army in the Philippines are said to be accepted in the British service. No reason to grumble about it if they are.

The deserter in time of peace is not a desirable person and is sent to prison, which may not displease him. If he is sent into battle instead the chances are that he will "get his," which ought to be satisfactory all around.

Ethical

A Swedish servant girl in Los Angeles makes the charge that a lawyer has robbed her of the savings of fifteen years.

Perhaps he may find a technicality or precedent or something, justifying this course.

However, the servant girls' union and the Bar association, if both are on the square, will take the same view of the case.

PEARL, BRIDE AND LEGACY IN OYSTER

ST. PAUL, Minn.—Other persons have been known to bite into an oyster and discover a pearl, but to find a pearl and a bride and claim a $5000 legacy all through the same little bivalve is an accomplishment.

Ralston Foster was married by Court Commissioner Gallick to Miss Gladys Malcomb, who served the Cupid oyster in a Denver restaurant two months ago. Then Foster told this story:

"Mother died when I was 18 years old, leaving me a $5000 bequest, to be claimed only in event I was married before the age of 25 years. I earned little for girls and might have 'stuck' had I not ordered blue points in a Denver restaurant.

"My teeth clashed with something hard, and my exclamation attracted the waitress. She was sympathetic and pretty, and laughed with me in my predicament. Then we discovered that the 'hard substance' was a pearl, which later was valued at $500. Guess that's all there is to the story."

"Not quite," Mrs. Foster said, and she extended a hand which bore the $500 pearl in an engagement ring.

ARREST MEXICO CITY BURGLAR GANG'S HEAD

MEXICO CITY.—The police of Mexico City believe that with the capture recently of Ramon Canteli they have broken up a band of burglars and robbers which has terrorized the more prosperous residence districts of the city and which has taken loot said to amount to more than $100,000. The band was known as "La Mona que Aprista" or "The Grasping Hand," from the black imprint of a hand which always was left somewhere about the premises where the robbers operated. It is believed many persons robbed feared to report their losses for fear of the vengeance of "The Grasping Hand."

Canteli, it is said, was captured in a subterranean chamber opening from the wall of a deep well. He was traced through his wife, who brought him food and it is alleged that several of the victims of the robberies have identified him as one of the band.

The 5,000 policemen of Mexico City have received an increase in pay of from three and one-half pesos to five pesos a day. They also will be furnished their uniforms in future. Heretofore they have had to purchase their own uniforms.

ELECTION ECHOES

The Register supported Mr. Hughes to the best of its ability, and tried to treat Mr. Wilson fairly and courteously—it has no regrets to express or apologies to make. A big majority of the voters of Orange County concurred in the opinion of the Register, that Mr. Hughes ought to be elected. However, Mr. Wilson defeated him, and we bow gracefully to the will of the majority.

The result of the election seems to indicate that the voters of the country are strongly independent and numerously nonpartisan—and that the women are not alone in the opinion that "President Wilson kept us out of war."

Anyhow the Dry vote of last Tuesday shows a tremendous gain over the Dry vote of two years ago.

We thought the Dry Republicans might vote for Edwards and thus defeat Harbison; but the returns seem to indicate that most of them harkened to the voice of wisdom and voted for the San Bernardino man. On the other hand, many of the Dry Democrats seem to have voted for Edwards, because of Kettner's wet record in Congress. Kettner ran away behind Wilson here. So it was San Diego, and not Edwards, that beat Harbison.

That the harmony plan in Orange County between the factions of the Republican party was carried out by the great body of voters as well as by the leaders is shown in the totals.

Now that the campaign is over, it would be interesting reading if some one would tell us how much of the $10,000 appropriation made for the Prohibition Party Congressional campaign in the Eleventh District was spent in Orange County. There was enough Edwards literature distributed here to fill a truck.

The best Hughes speeches made in Orange County during the campaign—the speeches that turned the most votes and carried the most weight with the people—were the speeches made by Governor Johnson.

Dick Foye Harding says "Sam Gompers did it"—that the president of the American Federation of Labor is the power behind the throne of the National Electorate."

Yes, Governor Johnson is, in a measure, responsible for California and some other states going Democratic—but not in the way he is charged. He is responsible just to the extent that he has educated people to do their own thinking, to act individually instead of partisans, to vote independently. And the fact that people did vote independently goes far to reconcile and give confidence in the result.

OTHER KINDS OF ADVERTISING

The newspaper man finds a merchant here and there who says he believes in advertising, yet does not take newspaper space. He is inclined to favor handbills or roadside signs.

The latter are contrary to every principle of scientific advertising. The fundamental principle of modern publicity is to appeal to intelligence and logical sense. "Reason Why" advertising is the key note of every convention of advertising experts. "Reason Why" advertising is impossible in roadside publicity. The swiftly going motorist can't read letters less than two feet high. Was even a pedestrian ever seen to stop and consider a bill board? On the contrary he hates its intrusion on the scenery and curses the man who erected it.

Advertising by handbills left at the doors may have some value. It may be useful to supplement the work of the newspapers. But the printer with his labor, ink and paper to sell, likes to see the money go where it will do the most good. He would rather it went into the newspaper, even if the job printing paid him just as much money. For he wants his customer to be satisfied and to see results.

The circular may or may not be read. Very frequently it is dumped into the waste basket or thrown away into the street gutter.

The newspaper, on the other hand, is read and read thoroughly. People allow time for it, take it at their leisure, sit down with the idea of going through it thoroughly. Hence everything that is worth reading is read, and the merchant talks to a great audience. It is by far the cheapest and most convincing form of publicity.

WORKING FOR AN EDUCATION

People don't value the things that come too easily. Nowadays they expect everything to be handed them on a silver platter. It would be too much work for them to get it themselves. Formerly young people would walk long distances for the chance to attend school. Their parents would take time to drive them over the road every day if the distance was prohibitive for walking.

This spirit is not wholly absent today. The National Geographic Magazine has received a letter telling about a Kentucky mountaineer who walked thirty miles to enter his motherless brood in a school. He made all the children's clothes so that they could make a decent appearance. Children from such homes as this would not complain because the transportation wagon left them at a point a mile away from their homes.

One does not find a great deal of this feeling today. The cost of education in the rural districts is being greatly increased by the spread of the transportation custom. It is a fixed principle in many localities now that children can not be expected to walk more than a mile to school. The time of a man and an automobile or other vehicle to haul these youngsters is expensive. It grows more so every day as the price of labor and gasoline and feed for horses increases. A man who is responsible and careful is needed for the work of transporting school children and he charges well for his service.

The result is to impoverish many rural communities or to restrict the amount they can pay for teachers. The children have an easier time, but the schools are poorer.

Children will run and walk miles at their play. But their parents think they can't walk two miles each way to school any longer. No community can afford to begrudge expenditures really necessary for education. But a greater spirit of co-operation on the part of children and parents is needed. The time should not have gone by when education can be had wholly without effort.

THE "8 TO 1" TEST

Considerable controversy over the eight-to-one standard for oranges has sprung up in all parts of the state since the adoption of the standard by several counties in both Central and Southern California. Some interests contend that the eight-to-one standard should be generally adopted in all districts for the general good of the industry, while other interests are vigorously opposing the adoption of the standard and are of the opinion that it will work a hardship in many districts and hold back shipments unjustly. A number of test cases will be made to ascertain the legal status of the ordinance, and the outcome is being watched with interest in many districts.

The premature shipment of oranges from California has been one of the bugbears of the industry that should be dealt with firmly, and if the standard of eight parts soluble solids to one part acid as set down by the officials of the United States Government is not the proper method for ascertaining the majority of the fruit, some standard should be adopted that will meet the approval of all concerned and should be rigidly enforced. Florida has profited by the adoption of a standard of maturity for her oranges, and has a state law governing same. California should get in line also.—Fruit World.

Is the Black Scale Problem Finally Solved?

BY M. V. HARTRANFT

The fungus treatment for the eradication of black scale on citrus trees has apparently scored a triumph after the hopes of its most ardent advocates had been nearly abandoned. If the conditions now believed to exist on the Alpaugh ranch at Sunnyslope prove to be correct from all scientific standpoints, the question of complete obliteration of black scale has been solved. The cost of doing it in each orchard is merely the procurement of a few twigs of the fungi affected trees and tying them among the trees where the black scale thrives, and the rearing of a few lady bugs to travel around and spread the disease which wipes out the black scale and all of its eggs and all of its young. Anything that promises to lift from the shoulders of the growers of citrus fruit a burden such as fumigation, that has cost them from one to two million dollars a year, is of considerable importance and likely to generate enthusiasm ahead of real achievement. The news that has traveled far and wide among the citrus districts the past few days must therefore be viewed calmly, as the history of the Alpaugh experimental tests shows clearly that there are many scientific points in the control of the fungus that are not yet understood by the scientists or laymen connected with the investigations.

For several years the orchards of Judge E. M. Ross and those of Edward Roberts, formerly state treasurer, and others of equal standing have been treated with this fungous method with uniform success until the past year when considerable complaint was heard as to the infection of the fungi owing to supposed climatic conditions. Because a group of scientific men connected with the citrus fruit industry took entirely opposite views to the many experienced orchardists who reported success, the writer, on behalf of the Times, invited the co-operation of the E. K. Alpaugh orchard of thirty acres at Sunnyslope for the making of a thoroughly disinterested test of the Woodbridge fungus method.

The treatment was given this Alpaugh orchard in September, 1915, some fourteen months ago. The results were apparently very discouraging because in February it was necessary to have Woodbridge do the work of infecting over again. By April of this year the work was apparently ineffective and Mr. Alpaugh abandoned hope because the black scale was multiplying fast and no signs visible of the spread of the fungi. A spraying machine was ordered and eleven acres of the thirty were sprayed in May, but the work was discontinued because of a poor mixture in spraying and consequent slight damage. Last week Mr. Alpaugh made preparations to finish spraying the remaining nineteen acres, but on getting into the orchard with his machinery he found that the black scale and the usually black honey dew was all covered with a white fungus and every scale dead. He called in his neighbors and no one to this time has found any living scale in that south nineteen acres of his orchard. The fungus is clear to the naked eye and thereby sets at rest the arguments heretofore made that the black scale often appears and disappears without regard to any treatment, which was the only way that the opponents of the fungus idea could explain the cleaning up of some orchards heretofore. In this case at the Alpaugh orchard it is perfectly plain as to what has caused the uniform death of the scale.

Some Questions
"Why did the fungus fail to operate last fall and last winter?"

"When did it begin to spread infectious disease amongst the black scale family?"

"What is the right time of year and what are the right climatic conditions for its spreading?"

"Was the cool summer weather responsible for the complete action of the fungus in this case?"

These and other questions cannot be answered. Dr. Woodbridge says that he needs scientific help to work out the final answer of control. He is positive that this form of fungus does not need moisture nor a humid climate to perform successfully. A few twigs from a tree infected with fungus when stirred in water and about a half pint thrown from a syringe into each tree is all that there is to the treatment, except installation of lady birds helps to scatter the disease, or whatever you may call it, among the members of the black scale family. The Alpaugh orchard is on the old L. J. Rose rancho, Huntington drive, and the owner of the grove has invited all interested to come, look and see.

There has been a sharp controversy going on about this fungus treatment for black scale and official scientific consideration of it has been completely withheld. All past considerations should be lost sight of in the light of achievement and the officials of the citrus industry should begin the work of solving the details of the operation of this fungous enemy of black scale. The attitude of treating it as a patent medicine operation will not suffice for the present condition of affairs, because anyone can breed the mould or fungus on sour bread dough or scatter it from one orchard to another from the infected twigs, and the most that Dr. Woodbridge will ever secure from it will be the very much belated thanks of the community—if he finally wins.

Congratulates Kettner

San Bernardino Sun: Wiring his personal congratulations to his victorious rival in the congressional race, the editor of the Sun yesterday evening extended good wishes to Hon. William Kettner for the ensuing two years during which the latter has been commissioned as the district's representative at Washington, and the Sun joins in the same sentiment. As between the Republican and Democratic nominees, the campaign was conducted along such lines as to leave not the slightest personal difference, which was as it should be. It involved national questions, personal friendships and followings, and local and city pride and interest, all of them legitimately concerned in any campaign for the office of congressman, and because the contest was so based it easily becomes possible for the participants to extend felicitations. Between the issues and the friendships and followings and the fact that his city stood so solidly behind him, Mr. Kettner has a plurality that is worth being proud of, and at the same time the Sun man feels some measure of satisfaction over the fact that he was able to cut Mr. Kettner's plurality of over 22,000 two years ago to 7000 this year, and to carry five out of the seven counties, whereas every one of them lined up against the Republican candidate two years ago. Of course, to have completely wiped out the adverse lead would have been much more desirable, but the contest was not without results, and the thousands of friends and supporters of the Sun man all over the district have demonstrated how results can be shifted, and that about one more attack on the political ramparts of the Eleventh district will restore it to their control and insure Republican representation at Washington. This may also be the appropriate place for the editor of the Sun to voice his appreciation of the splendid support which they furnished, and likewise to make acknowledgement of the many and unusual favors extended by the newspapers of the district, 90 per cent of which gave their active influence for his candidacy, while almost without exception they were courteous, if not active in advancing the cause.

It was a contest worth while, and the result by no means makes it either unprofitable, or to be viewed with regret. The Sun man returns to duties which have long engrossed him, perhaps not exactly under conditions which formerly obtained, for the years run along, while there are other reasons for some changes of viewpoint. But the Sun and San Bernardino shall continue to command the best that he has.

Little Talks On Health and Hygiene

BY SAMUEL G. DIXON, M. D., LL. D.

This is the season of the year when many people instead of starting their furnaces use gas stoves to take off the chill. Not infrequently they use rubber pipe connections and in the majority of cases the stoves are not connected with a flue.

Such an arrangement is dangerous in the extreme. Every year many deaths are reported as a result of just such conditions. Coal gas or water gas contains a large percentage of carbon monoxide and this having little or no perceptible odor may be present without being noticed. There is no warning and unless material having an odor is added to the gas, the victim becomes unconscious and unless aid arrives a fatal result is almost certain to follow.

Do not use a gas stove without flue connections and proper ventilation.

Gas waer heaters are often installed in bath rooms without outside connections and then these are made use of to heat the room. Such arrangements are extremely hazardous.

First Presbyterian At-Home

The ladies of the northwest section of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church were hostesses yesterday afternoon at a delightful "at home" at the residence of the pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Stevenson, on North Broadway. About seventy-five were present.

Thanksgiving decorations, such as cornucopias, pumpkins and chrysanthemums, prevailed and the following interesting program was thoroughly enjoyed: Mrs. H. W. Shepherd rendered two readings, Miss Larsen gave instrumental music, Miss Lila Ritter pleased with vocal selections and Mrs. Stevens gave two readings on Thanksgiving topics. Victrola music also added to the enjoyment.

Thanksgiving refreshments of pumpkin pie, doughnuts and coffee were attractively served.

N. M. U. Club

Miss Joy Baker was the charming hostess last night to the members of the N. M. U. Club, which held a cosy meeting. Holly made attractive decorations and the time, as usual, was spent with needlework, fashioning of Christmas work and planning the holiday meeting.

Complimentary refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her mother.

Intermediate P. T. A. Hears Speeches on Vital Topics Regarding Children

The second meeting of the Intermediate Parent-Teacher Association was held Wednesday afternoon with an attendance of eighty-two.

Mrs. H. C. Dawes and Miss Brown had arranged a most interesting program. In order to acquaint the members of the association with the class mothers, the class mothers or their representatives gave 2-minute speeches on subjects of their own choosing.

Among the subjects discussed were: "Co-Operating as a Means of Helping All Children"; "Home Study in Intermediate as a Preparation for High School Study"; "Simplicity in Dress"; "Concentration as an Aid Through All of Life"; "Greater Efficiency Needed in the Grades"; "Teaching of Patriotism"; "Parties as a Mode of Teaching Manners"; "Habit as Concerned Toward Patriotism, Courtesy to Adults and the Use of the Dictionary"; "Civics, Advising the Use of School Boys Working in Teams."

An open discussion on "Home Study" followed and both sides were ably presented.

The next meeting will be a fathers' meeting and will be held in the evening of December 13.

NOVEMBER MEETING

McKinley Ass'n. Hears Good Talks on Manners, Morals, Work of P. T.'s

The regular November meeting of the McKinley P. T. A. was held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 in the kindergarten of the school on West Third street, with about fifty present.

During the short business session, the resignation of the president, Mrs. W. H. Allen, was accepted, and Mrs. F. D. Drake, vice-president of the association, was unanimously elected to be the president, and Mrs. Clifford Ulrich was elected to fill the office of vice-president thus made vacant.

Prof. J. A. Cranston was present and explained the plan of the Parent-Teacher owned theater, and the plan was most heartily endorsed by this association.

Mrs. L. J. Strong, chairman of the Department of Education of the Fourth District Congress of Mothers, was introduced and gave an interesting talk on the teaching of manners and morals in the schools and the common courtesies for every day to our boys and girls who are to become the future citizens of our country.

A detailed report of the Orange County Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations of the Fourth District Congress of Mothers Convention held in the Polytechnic High School on Saturday, October 14, 1916, was given by Mrs. J. Wm. Sackman and proved very interesting to those who were unable to attend the meeting.

Mrs. J. N. Anderson, the president of the City Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations of Santa Ana, was next introduced and gave a very instructive talk on the work and accomplishments of the Parent-Teacher Associations, showed so plainly the connections with the great and noble work that is being done by the State and National Congress of Mothers in behalf of the women and children of the state and nation.

During the social hour that followed, delicious coffee, sandwiches and doughnuts were served, and much enjoyed, Miss Andrews and the mothers of the Fifth Grade being the hostesses for the afternoon.

The meeting adjourned to meet again on December 14.

Altar Society at Orange

Mrs. C. Oelke and her charming daughters of Orange made the time fly pleasantly and all too rapidly yesterday afternoon for the members of the Altar Society of St. Joseph's Catholic church, which held its regular meeting in the sister city.

The hospitable home was prettily adorned with flowers for the event and about thirty ladies were present.

Further plans were made for the one day bazaar and cooked food sale to be held soon and before the company departed the hostess served elaborate and appreciated refreshments.

Interesting Wedding

The home of Rev. and Mrs. G. N. Greer of the Reformed Presbyterian church, was the scene of an interesting wedding ceremony last evening, when Rev. Greer united in marriage Frederick Munro, a civil engineer of Denver, Colo., and Miss Elizabeth Parks, formerly a teacher in Colorado.

The home was prettily adorned with chrysanthemums and ferns and the bride was charming in a navy blue tulle with harmonizing accessories.

The marriage was witnessed by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Parks, with whom she has been spending her vacation, and Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Allen, close friends.

Immediately after the ceremony.

Shiloh Circle Meeting

Shiloh Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R. held a most enthusiastic meeting yesterday afternoon when honored by the presence of the president of the Department of California and Nevada, Miss Annette Gayetti of Berkeley, and Mrs. Sarah M. Moore, of Los Angeles, Senior Vice President of the Department.

Miss Gayetti came for the purpose of inspecting the work of the Circle and had only warmest praise for the manner in which the work has been done during the past year. She gave a splendid report of the National Convention held in Kansas City, a report that made each member feel a glow of pride in their beloved order.

Composed of the mothers, wives, sisters, daughters and nieces of the veterans of the Civil War, the Ladies of the G. A. R. stand shoulder to shoulder with the Grand Army of the Republic and their work along the lines of relief, visiting the sick, taking flowers to those unable to be out, and especially in their support of the cottages at the Soldiers' Home, makes a record worthy of highest praise.

The meeting of Thursday was saddened by the absence of the president, Mrs. Palmer, who was detained at home by the ill health of her husband, and also by the death of Comrade Holbrook, a member of Sedgwick Post.

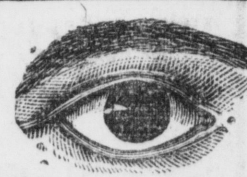

Mrs. McKean, the senior vice president presided in a highly creditable manner, and the meeting was one of inspiration to all present.

Campaign Refreshments

The F. and G. Club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. E. G. Huntington, 907 South Main street. The rooms were attractive with yellow and bronze chrysanthemums and needlework, conversation and victrola music happily passed the time.

Refreshments of Hughes salad, Wilson coffee and Campaign cake were enjoyed by the guests.

Beside the hostess there were present Meses. T. F. Tedford, V. A. Robertson, L. W. Slaback, Will Shugeld, Mont Jackson, Forest Gay, W. Wedgewood. The next meeting will be held with

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

GOING TO PAVE
BREA-OLINDA
HIGHWAYNo Action Was Taken Upon
Lowest Bid For Palisades
Culverts Job

The main highway between Brea and Olinda is to be paved. This decision has been reached by Supervisor William Schumacher of the Third district, and yesterday the Board of Supervisors set December 6 as the time for receiving bids for the job. The paving is to be paid for out of the general road fund of the Third district.

Contract Is Let

Yesterday a contract for paving Lemon street from the north Anaheim city limits to the state highway was let to M. T. Shafer on a bid of $381.34. M. L. Huberman bid $1061.84 for the job.

Contract Not Let

Bids were received for the construction of culverts on the Palisades road. All bids were rejected excepting the bid of Harvey Garber, his being the lowest, but the contract was not let yesterday. It will come up for disposal on November 13. The bids were:

Garber, $3328; William Ledbetter, $3959; J. S. Fluor, $4332; S. M. Keens, $4866; C. McNeill, $4958; J. P. Hunter, $5900; Mesmer & Rice, $4875; Munoz & Munoz, $3338; Mercereau, $3838.

These culverts are on the road between Newport boulevard and the Palisades.

Demand Rejected

Formal demand of Seal Beach for money collected in that city for traffic infractions was made by City Attorney J. C. Burke, and the demand was rejected. Suit will be instituted. The rejection was a preliminary suit. J. N. Wooters, constable at Placentia, was given sixty days' leave of absence from the state.

Assessor Sleeper was given leave of absence so that when he goes to the assessors' convention at El Centro, he can cross into Mexico.

A. L. Ellis was appointed guard and driver of the county ambulance at $75 a month.

Hearing Is Set

The hearing of the viewers' report upon the J. J. Stoves road petition in the second district was set for December 6.

J. L. McBride, L. W. Evans and R. W. Jones were named viewers on the N. T. Edwards road petition for a road in the Orange district.

The hearing of the petition of George Gohard to close a road at Westminster was set for December 6. The petition of C. F. Halsey to connect his garage at Bolsa with the county highway was granted.

Action on the coast road bids was continued again, this time to November 13.

AT THE COURTHOUSE

DEMOCRATS ON GUARD, WATCH
BALLOTS HERENot That They Think Anything Would Happen, But
Were Asked to Do It

LEAD AT CT HOUSE—DEMOCRATS The Democrats are watching the returns all over California, and because they received a request that the returns here be given a guard local Democrats are maintaining a day and night watch at the courthouse.

The request came from the Democratic National committee. The same request is supposed to have gone to every county in the state. At least, a dispatch so states. The national committee feared that somewhere someone might juggle the returns.

After talking the matter over, the local Democrats decided to place a watch at the courthouse. They were not at all afraid that anyone would break into the courthouse and walk away with the returns, but the national committee wanted it done, and they did it.

That is how it comes that J. F. Hamilton is sitting up nights at the courthouse, and that is why M. C. Cooper is in the corridor at the courthouse all day long.

No, sir, no one is going to get the returns away from Orange county, not if the Democrats can help it. Also, not if the Republicans can help it, for, by the way, the Republicans would have a lot more to lose than would the Democrats if someone slipped in and torpedoed the returns.

Articles Filed

Articles of incorporation have been filed by the Fullerton Amusement Co.; capitalization, $5,000; directors, W. L. Benchley, A. H. Rothaermel, C. W. Crandall, W. C. Goodwin, P. D. Hax, Ed. Golter and H. A. Schriener.

Transferred Here

Mrs. Elva Gialenes brought suit in Los Angeles for $20,000 against Thomas and Caroline Wilford and M. I. and Lida McCarty. The plaintiff alleged that the defendants on June 5 made remarks about her to Mrs. Mallory, Attorney H. V. Weisel of Anaheim, appearing for Wilford, secured a change of venue, and today the papers in the case were filed here.

For Administration

Myrtle A. Marter has applied for letters of administration upon the estate of Frank C. Marter. The estate consists of property at Placentia and Huntington Beach, worth $10,000. The widow and a 2-year-old child are the heirs. H. V. Weisel is attorney for the petitioner.

Under $500 Bond

Gerald Thompson of Los Angeles has been put under $500 bond to keep the peace. Judge West heard the testimony, which was that Thompson went to the home of Mrs. Addie Ruggles, and after a wordy interview left saying something about putting a bullet through her. Mrs. Ruggles was the widow of Thompson's brother.

His Trial Set

Charles Broadwick, balloonist and parachute jumper, pleaded not guilty to stealing parachute silk at Seal Beach. His trial was set for Nov. 17.

Store Released

A return has been made by Deputy Sheriff Cravath showing that he has turned over the store at 125 Main street, Seal Beach, to a receiver appointed by the federal court. The place was attached by Cravath in connection with a suit for $1200 brought by S. H. Peters against the Bee Hive Co.

Judge Craig Here

Superior Judge Craig of Riverside was here today hearing matters in Judge West's court. Judge West is in Riverside sitting in some cases in which Judge Craig is disqualified.

UM! GOLD NUGETS
AND RINGS OF GOLDRich Haul at Brea Turns Out to Be All of It Bogus
Jewelry

At Brea last night Under Sheriff Iman and Deputy Gunnett arrested two men who had gold rings and gold nuggets enough to wake up a Midas. That is, they looked like gold. They were not that kind of metal.

Two men who give their names as James Burns and James Vincent, who say they are printers, were trying to sell rings and nuggets at Brea. The officers were informed, and they soon had the two men under arrest.

They had a dozen band rings initialed "J to L, June 3-10." They had a lot of great big nuggets, nuggets of brass, not gold, with bits of rock stuck in them to make them look real.

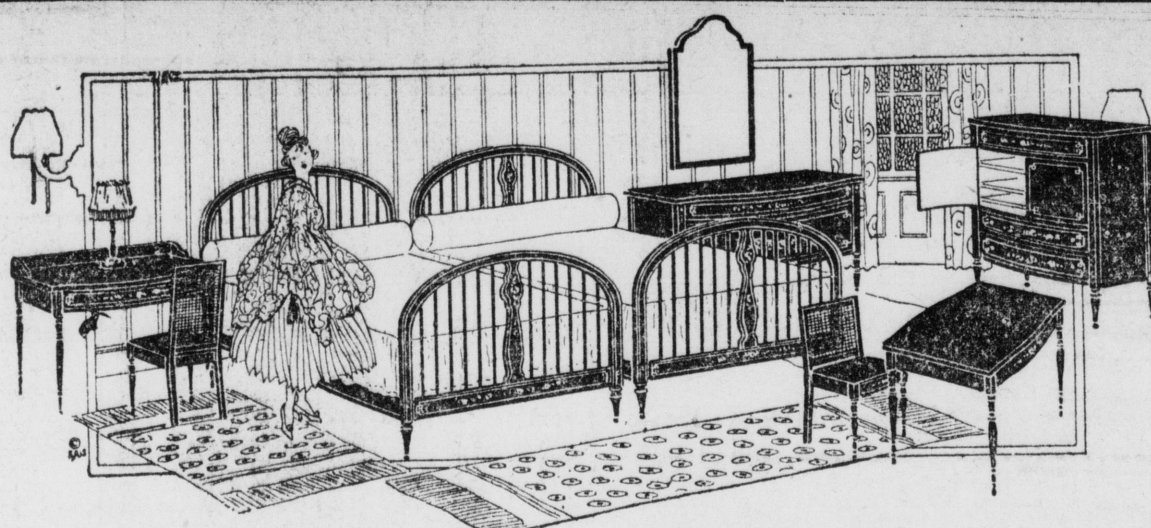

Iman locked the two men up, and is holding them for investigation. One of the rings was sold to a Mexican at Brea for fifty cents.

Charges Laid

Grant McMullen has sworn to a complaint against Mrs. Frances Norton of Los Alamitos, charging that she carried away $300 worth of furniture. The woman at one time leased a hotel at Los Alamitos, and McMullen says that when she moved to another hotel that she had leased, she took his furniture with her.

PRINCETON AND HARVARD CLASH TOMORROW

BY HAMILTON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—When Harvard and Princeton bow their backs and start for each other tomorrow the three-cornered whirl for supremacy in the "big three" of the east will be on its three-legged way.

It will be the first tussle of the season amongst any of the three eleven which are always pointed to in arguments regarding the relative strength of eastern teams.

Both teams have been rather weak on defense this year, but Harvard, through Percy Haughton's work, has come to the front in this department. Both are fairly strong on attack.

Last year Princeton was beaten 10 to 6 in a remarkably hard-fought game. Yale will meet Brown and Cornell will meet Michigan in the other important games of the east.

PREPAREDNESS How It Helps Coughs and Colds

Buy your bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar now, and quickly stop the coughs and colds of early fall.

Early fall brings croup, bronchitis, asthmatic breathing, troublesome night coughs, whooping cough, and tickling, irritable throat.

It aggravates the distressing cough of weak lungs, and the chronic coughs of elderly people.

It gives "snuffles" to infants and children and provokes adenoids and sore inflamed throats.

Give Foley's Honey and Tar freely. It is so soothing and curative, relieves hoarseness and puts a healing coating on the inflamed mucous lining of the throat. It stops coughing easily and quickly and relieves croup before this dreaded thing has a chance to really harm the children or scare the parents. The last dose is just as good as the first, and a less amount is needed than of any other cough syrup.

So see to it that you get only the original FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, for it is the only genuine, and contains no opiates.

FULLERTON TALKS ABOUT CITY HALL

FULLERTON, Nov. 10.—When the board of trade meets next Tuesday evening one of the chief topics of discussion will be a new city hall and the city council will probably attend the meeting in a body, providing the council is not forced by the press of business to hold a meeting on the same night that the board of trade session takes place. The council at a meeting Tuesday night agreed to attend the board of trade banquet if possible.

The discussion of a new city hall at the board of trade will probably be more to feel out the sentiment of the city toward the project than anything else. It was pointed out at the council meeting Tuesday night that the time to dispose of bonds is propitious since municipal bonds are in heavy demand.

The council has not yet formed a definite conception of what a city hall is going to cost and in order to get an idea the council, or at least part of it, will spend a day visiting various small cities to view city halls and find out what the cost of them was.

The council does not intend to build at once but it was intimated that the city hall might go up before next spring.

'CASCARETS' BEST IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS, SICK, CONSTIPATED

Best for Liver and Bowels, Bad Breath, Bad Colds, Sour Stomach

Get a 10-cent box.
Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to a torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach. Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, takes the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet, breath right, complexion rosy and your liver and bowels regular for months.—Advertisement.

ARTIFICIAL GAS USE AS FUEL INCREASES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The use of artificial gas as a domestic and industrial fuel is increasing. In households gas is replacing coal for cooking and to some extent for heating, and in the industries gas, mainly from by-product coke ovens, is now used for raising steam and firing open-hearth steel furnaces. The advantages of gas as a fuel, not the least of which are its cleanliness and its ease of control, are well known. Many small cities and towns are using gas brought by pipe lines from the larger cities where it is manufactured. The utilization of artificial gas for illuminating, however, is decreasing, mainly because of competition by electricity.

The quantity of artificial gas—oil and water gas and coal gas made at resorts and by-product coke ovens—marketed and sold in 1915 was 266,294,248,000 cubic feet, valued at $173,832,132, according to statistics collected by C. E. Leshner, of the United States Geological Survey Department of the Interior. This was an increase of 25 per cent in quantity and 17 per cent in value, compared with 1912, the next preceding year for which the statistics of the industry were collected by the Geological Survey.

The aggregate output of coal gas in 1915 was 128,103,346,000 cubic feet, valued at $48,882,007, an increase compared with 1912 of 43 per cent in quantity and 33 per cent in value. Water gas enriched with oil, or carbureted water gas, is more generally used in cities than coal gas and formed about 47 per cent of the total quantity of artificial gas sold in 1915.

In California, Arizona, and Oregon nearly all the artificial gas is made from oil and in some other states there are oil-gas plants. The quantity of oil-gas manufactured and sold in the United States in 1915 was an increase, compared with 1912, of 13 per cent in quantity and 12 per cent in value. The average value of oil and water gas in 1915 was 90 per cent per 1,000 cubic feet, compared with 92 cents for coal gas from retorts.

It is not possible to procure complete figures showing the sale of artificial gas for various uses, for the reason that in many cities the gas for illuminating and for fuel is not metered separately. The statistics collected by the Geological Survey for 1912 showed that 47 per cent of the artificial gas sold was used for illuminating. The statistics collected for 1915 show that 30 per cent of the gas sold was used for illuminating, 48 per cent for domestic fuel and 22 per cent for industrial fuel.

NEWS BUDGET FROM TALBERT

TALBERT, Nov. 9.—The social given by the Queen Esther Circle Saturday night was well attended and a howling success. The baskets sold well to say nothing of how the gentlemen were sold who bought them. The needle and fancy work was all sold very satisfactorily and a nice amount realized to be applied on the church piano. The ladies of the circle extend their thanks to their neighbors and all who attended, inviting all to come again. A nice program was rendered as follows: Talk, by Rev. Andrews; solo, Florence Carey; recitation, Margaret Will; song, Mrs. Andrews; recitation, Mary Mueller; duet, Mary Mueller and Hazel Brady; recitation, Helen Wardlow; violin solo, Mrs. McCusick; recitation, Louise Wardlow.

It has been necessary for the Talbert farmers to call for help in cleaning their ditches in parts of the neighborhood as the rising water was overflowing standing crops in places. The help was supplied and is at work.

Election passed very quietly Tuesday in this precinct, there being 188 votes cast in all, 164 Republican, 11 Socialist, and the dry amendment carried.

Rev. R. H. Obarr and family, who have resided at Old Newport the past year, have moved to Montebello, where Dr. Obarr is connected with a bakery. Mrs. Obarr spent the day Wednesday visiting at the Talbert home.

Rev. A. Andrews of Long Beach has been assigned to the Talbert church for the year. There will be services Sunday morning at 11 a. m. and in the evening at 7:30. Everyone is invited.

Among other things he said that if California goes wet there will be two reasons for it. First because of a lot of good people who did not vote; second because some good people voted wet. Any man or woman, he said, who has a real love for the boys and girls will not stay at home and will vote to make this state of California safer and better to live in.

The judges for the musical contest were Prof. Haynes, Mrs. Haynes and Miss Gardner of Santa Ana. Their decision was that Miss Ruby Griggs was awarded the silver medal and Miss Mary Linn was given second place. The judges expressed the opinion that all the contestants did remarkably well and especially since they had only a week in which to prepare.

He closed by saying it was every Christian voter's duty to go to the polls and strike a blow at this nefarious business.

Mrs. H. Lester spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Los Angeles visiting her friend, Mrs. Jennie Harrison.

SILVER MEDAL CONTEST HELD

Viola McMillan Is Awarded the Oratorical Medal By the Judges

WINTERSBURG, Nov. 10.—The silver medal contest at the M. E. church Monday night was a decided success. This was given under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. with Mrs. A. H. Moore in charge, assisted by Miss Jordan and Mrs. James Haptonstall. The program was in two parts, oratorical and musical. At the appointed hour, those taking part marched to the platform to the strains of "Cecelia," a piano duet by Miss Viola Walton and Mrs. Haptonstall. After "America" was sung by the audience, and prayer, the young speakers gave their readings, their places having been decided upon by previously drawn numbers. All did remarkably well, speaking clearly and with good expression. The continued applause of the audience proved its interest in each selection. Part two consisted of solo singing without music, but with piano accompaniment, five girls and one boy competing for the medal. Each one sang very well. In fact, the judges experienced some little difficulty in awarding first place. Judging from the applause of the audience, the young man who stood out and sang with such a good voice had the house with him.

While the judges retired to decide on the winner, Miss Walton and Mrs. Haptonstall gave a piano duet, "Dance Humoresque," and later Rev. O. N. Oleson recited "The Run Maniac," an impersonation of a life wrecked by the drink habit.

Viola McMillan was awarded the oratorical medal, while Minnie Granna was given first place in the singing contest, entitling her to a silver medal also. Following is the list of contestants: Oratorical, Esther Radford, Agnes Gothard, Lucile Radford, Viola McMillan, Vivian Cady, Myrtle Young, Charlie Blaylock; musical, Minnie Granna, Violet Robson, Alice Roberts, Albert Maddux, Angie Granna, Myrtle Pierce. The judges were Messrs. Turner and McKillop and Rev. M. W. Coates for part I, and Mr. Ralph Turner, Mrs. McKillop and Mrs. S. E. Kearne for the second part, all of Huntington Beach.

The Methodist young people netted the sum of $12 plus at the election day dinner. They also served lunches and their good work was appreciated. The money goes to swell the social hall fund. Mr. and Mrs. James Haptonstall and Miss Lizzie Gothard were the busy people.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the M. E. church held the second meeting of the conference year today at the home of Mrs. E. M. Fox. Serving was the work of the day, preparatory to packing a box to send away. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. C. F. Hoff.

The bean growers have improved these sunny days so well that the threshing is practically all finished and the beans out of the way of any damage by a rain. If the good weather continues a few days more the beans will all have been hauled.

The many friends of Mrs. Frank Ulrich will be glad to know that she is improving steadily and hopes to be able to leave the hospital the last of the week.

Mr. Andrew Moore is doing the fall plowing up in short order with his new tractor that leaves behind it a triple furrow.

Hamilton Moore, who was taken ill quite suddenly last Saturday, was able to come to the polls yesterday and is slowly improving in health.

OVER HALF MILLION DOLLARS RECEIVED AT ANAHEIM HOUSE

Anaheim, Nov. 10.—At the annual meeting of the Anaheim Fruit Association yesterday Manager G. W. Sandilands reported that in the past season the association packed and shipped 221,233 boxes of oranges for which it received and disbursed $539,470.84. This total output represents a gain of 46 per cent over the previous season's business.

The following is taken from the manager's report:

"We find on closing the records of last season's business we have a surplus of money on hand to total amount of $17,193.34. This will represent a refund to you at the rate of seven cents per packed box on the season's shipments. In making the announcement of this refund we wish to call your attention to the fact that practically all packing material was higher than the year before, and that we have paid for in full every improvement in increasing the capacity of your packing-house to double what it was a year ago. We also wish to add for your information that our refund of seven cents per box is equivalent to 10 cents from any other packing house in the county.

"We purchased a total of $5034.36 in commercial fertilizers and $2387.11 in cover crop seeds the past season. We also purchased through the Fruit Growers' Supply Company packing house supplies in amount of $50,848.54 for the packing of our fruit and for which we received a refund of $3,287.20.

"Our fumigating campaign is still in progress. We have covered to date this season over 50,000 trees. Weather conditions have not been favorable this year for the most successful carrying out of this work. Through fortunate foresight we purchased a whole carload of cyanide early in the season, which cost over $8000, which has given us enough material to meet almost all our requirements. At the present time it is impossible to obtain any of this material on account of labor troubles at the factories. We believe that it will be necessary to add at least another outfit, making five, to cover next season's campaign.

"Our total active membership is now 265, making a gain of 43 members over the previous season. This membership controls 256 acres of oranges, no record being kept of any orchard less than three years old.

"Reports covering all cars shipped by your association the past season have rated very high. These reports refer to the grading, packing and loading, and not a single car was rejected on account of the poor quality of our packing house work.

"The percentage of varieties shipped was as follows: Navels, 13 per cent; Sweets, 4 per cent; Valencia, 83 per cent. Last year as follows: Navels, 27 per cent; Sweets, 10 per cent; Valencia, 63 per cent.

"For the entire season on all varieties our packing box reports showed an average of 67.4 per cent over picking boxes delivered. This is remarkable when the size of our picking boxes and the care that is given to see that they are not filled too full is considered."

GERMAN WONDER TUNNEL, BUILT FOR DEFENSE, IS CAPTURED BY FRENCH

Bore More Than Half Mile In Length 60 Feet Under Ground Discovered

BY HENRY WOOD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES
BEFORE CHAULINES, Oct. 14 (by mail).—The present encircling movement of the French armies about Chaulines is similar to the ones so successfully employed in the capture of Comblès, Thiepval and other important centers at the northern extremity of the offensive.

The capture of Chilly, brought to light one of the most striking examples that has yet been found of the extremes of organization and effort to which the German General Staff has gone in its effort to cling to the occupied soil of France.

Following the capture of Chilly, the French troops found at the depth of forty to sixty feet below the surface a tunnel more than half a mile in length constructed from the headquarters of the commanding officer in Chilly to the front line German trenches then well in advance of the village.

Use Expert Miners
For the construction of this tunnel, expert miners had been brought from Germany and it represented not less than six months of their work. By its use, the Germans were able to send not only their men into the front line trenches, but also all munitions and supplies, without exposing a single man to the constant trench bombardment.

Although the Germans are now considerably beyond Chilly they are still near enough to keep up daily a terrible bombardment and struggle in a last desperate effort to win back the tunnel, which is now serving the French fully as well as it formerly served the Germans.

I was enabled to enter the tunnel from one of the exits it had in the German first-line positions and traverse its entire half-mile length to the village of Chilly in the rear, conscious of utter security from the German bombardment, which never ceased.

3 Stair Flights

The descent into the tunnel was by three successive flights of stairs, for the Germans naturally figuring that their first-line positions would suffer the heaviest bombardment, had sunk the tunnel at that point to a depth of sixty feet. Here at the bottom of the stairway and at the end of the tunnel was grouped off half a dozen chambers with sleeping and eating facilities for the soldiers when off duty, when the trenches were being too violently bombarded to remain above, and for the troops who might be called upon to defend the tunnel in case the trenches above should be taken.

These rooms were now occupied by the French "polius" who had converted all of the arrangements both for the comfort and defense of the original German owners to their own use.

Heavily Walled Up

Entering the tunnel proper, I found it entirely walled up with heavy timber, the ceiling high enough to permit the troops to pass without stooping down, and with a narrow gauge railway running the entire length for the hurrying of munitions to the front line trenches.

Pipes for mechanical ventilation as well as electric light wires ran the full length of the tunnel. The plants at forty feet below the surface of the earth, had been destroyed by the Germans at the moment of capture.

Groping on through the tunnel, through the foul air and lighted only by candles and pocket flash lights, I found the floor was strewn with half eaten loaves of black bread which the Germans had evidently flung frantically down when the word was passed that the French had taken the position above.

Find Debris

Potatoes were strewn over the floor of the tunnel, as were also innumerable empty mineral water, wine and beer bottles with which the tunnel appeared to have been lavishly stocked.

From both sides of the tunnel sleeping rooms branched off, and the bunks in these contained still the shoes, coats, caps and other articles of clothing just as the Germans had left them at the moment of surprise.

A little farther on was a widened portion that had been the dressing room and surgical station for the wounded in the French bombardment and even when the French had swept over the position, had apparently been
